» Could you tell me what percentage of Similarity score given by Turnitin is appropriate?

In my case, I got 19% from Turnitin, is it OK?

Turnitin is a tool detecting text similarities.

The similarity score is NOT the plagiarism indicator.
Human interpretation is always required.

High similarity score \neq Plagiarism

It may include false positives. False positives could be:

- » 1. Terms usually used in your field, grammatical terms, the names, affiliations, methods and methodology.
- » 2. Reference list, properly cited and/or quoted text or text for which permission has been received.
- » 3. Your own published paper or work stored in Student Paper database.

Consult your instructor on enhancing the original writing

Rewrite the text.

Or you may use the filter  to reduce the similarity score.
Your instructor can also help you exclude certain sources.

‘No Magic Number’

Therefore, based on the above situation, it is difficult to clearly define an ideal similarity score.

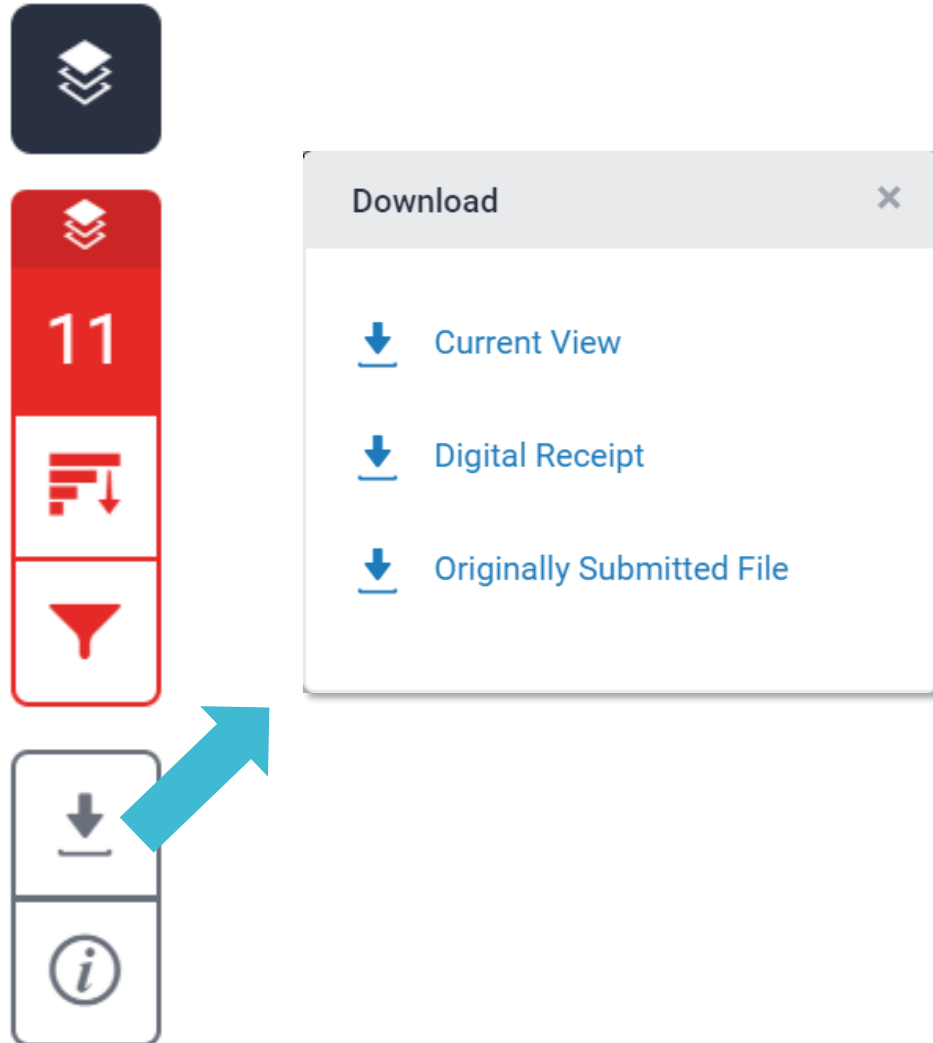

The best way is discussing the appropriate criteria with your department or your instructor/advisor.

Or refer to the publishing policy of publishers and journals.

A Communist Heritage of Forgetting and Remembering: The Statue Park in Budapest

Soviet Union in the late 1940s adopted an aggressive ideological campaign to consolidate the regime through East-Central Europe. The most visible aspect was the massive public display of revolutionary symbols in cities under iron curtain. Flags feature the hammer and sickle, emblems of unity between industrial and agricultural workers in the class struggle; Buildings were crowned with Red star of communism, posters of Marx-Engels-Lenin-Stalin on the wall, whilst statues of heroes and communist comrades were erected, with heads uplifted, staring unblinkingly into the future.

When the Eastern-Central European dictatorships demised in 1989-90, political upheavals often followed with popular demonstrations in which many visible symbols were destroyed: socialist-inspired street and square were quickly renamed, emblems as the Berlin Wall or the Stalin statue were torn down, and the fate of these public memorials carving communist ideology became an important issue. Some material legacy can be rapidly effaced. However, other built heritage – the plethora of monumental buildings or tower blocks built for industrial workers – will persist for much longer, reminding a period of history that many people want to forget.

Despite most people in this region has confusing attitude toward this recent past, they can't stop a tide-like growing interest among Western tourist of material legacy of communism. In consequence, many former-associated communist sights were constructed as "attractions" for the gaze of Western tourist. The promotions of these
